Cookie Policy

ChefMéd uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you visit our site and enables us to identify changes that may be needed to improve your browsing experience. You can choose to allow or deny certain cookies by referring to the Cookie Settings bar when you visit our website.

What are Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They help to make the site work, or work more efficiently, provide a better user experience, and retain user preferences such as shopping carts. They also provide anonymised tracking data to third-party applications such as Google Analytics. Cookies help us learn which areas of the website are useful and which areas need improvement.

Cookies make your browsing experience better but you may prefer to disable some or all cookies on this website. To find out more about cookies and how to disable them visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

Categories of Cookies

The most common cookie categories that you can choose to allow or deny on the ChefMéd website are as follows:

Necessary cookies

Necessary cookies are required to make a website function properly. They include cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of the site, remember what's in your shopping cart, and who is authenticated when you go to another internal page or refresh the site.

Analytical cookies

Analytical cookies are not necessary but are used to collect valuable information on how a website is being used including recognising and counting the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around the website when they are using it. They help to improve the way a website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily. Analytical cookies are used to determine usage of a site, they may track individual users, but only to the extent to allow a user's journey through the site. They are not used for targeting adverts (Marketing Cookies).

Marketing cookies

Marketing cookies are used to track visitors across websites to profile user behaviour and allow publishers to display relevant advertisements. They do not directly store your personal details but do uniquely identify your browser and internet device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less personalised advertising.

Third-party Websites

Pages on this website may include links to third-party websites which may also use cookies over which we have no control. We recommend that you check the relevant third-party's Privacy Policy for information about any cookies that may be used.

You can configure your web browser to refuse cookies, to delete cookies, or to be informed if a cookie is set. You can find out how to do this by clicking "help" on your browser menu. You should note that by deleting or blocking cookies, the ChefMéd website may not function correctly and you may not be able to access certain areas.
